ANNIVERSARY OF FAMOUS CONFLICT

Battle of Gettysburg Will Be Handed Down in History.

PICKETT'S CHARGE.

Description of Engagement by Mrs.
Pickett—Foot Soldiers March to Cannon's Mouth.

Gettysburg, July 3.—The battle of Gettysburg took place half a century ago today, the charge of the Virginia troops, 5,000 in number, under the leadership of General George E. Pickett being the most thrilling scene of the great conflict. Had this intrepid body of men been properly supported after they reached the Union batteries, it is possible that the war would have continued for a much longer time than it did and the final result might have been changed.

At a quarter past 3 in the afternoon of the fatal day, the order "Forward!" rang along the lines. The supreme moment had come. As far as the eye could reach, up and down on each side, the gaze of thousands of men of both armies was riveted on a lone line of soldiers moving with all the precision of a grand review. The five thousand Virginians had begun their march to death.

Mrs. Pickett, widow of the famous Confederate, gives a graphic description of that renowned charge, which is regarded as one of the most brilliant in the annals of carnage.

Considerable activity is being manifested by the contestants who have entered in the July fly swatting campaign now being conducted by the health department.

After the great interest in last month's contest, which was very close, it is expected that this month will bring a much larger number of children in line for the prizes which are to be awarded by the health department.

There is but one way to win in the contests, and that is to work. Every contestant has a chance to win a prize, as all are on the same footing at the start, and to win requires but persistence and steady work through the month.

Some children who enter the contest swat a few thousand flies and then drop out or lag behind for a week, and while they are doing much to help eradicate the fly they do not have much show to win either of the three first big prizes, as if they enter the contest and keep up interest in it.

The following figures show the standing of the contestants in the first three days of the July contest:

Isabella Cockrell,	63,250.
Naomi Massey,	38,290.
Alton Dodd,	22,000.
Julian Chauncey,	12,800.
Francis Summers,	8,000.
Harvey Magner,	4,700.
Mary Mead,	4,600.
Ruben Heyman,	4,000.
Edith Jett,	3,000.
Clarence Mead,	1,400.

DROWNED IN LOUISA.

Former Richmond Boy Nephew of Garland Pollard, Loses Life.

Richmond, Va., July 3.—John Cox, 7 years of age, the son of Louis F. Cox, of Louisville, formerly of Richmond, was drowned at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon while bathing in the mill pond at Trevillian in Louisa county. Young Cox was visiting at the summer home of Henry R. Pollard, Jr., near Trevillian, when he was killed.

John Cox was a Richmond boy, connected with many families of prominence in the city.

Now is the time for a lot of fellows to declare that as long as they cannot marry Miss Jessie they will refuse to marry any of the President's daughters.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Mrs. Augustus Elkmann, confessed slayer of her 12-year-old daughter, Frances, whose body was found in a trunk at Ogden, Utah, last Saturday, has been formally charged with murder in the office of the district attorney. C. L. Anderson, the woman's first husband, with whom she was on the way to Michigan, was released from custody.

Harry K. Thaw has come to the financial rescue of General Daniel F. Sickles from his cell in Matteawan. He sent a letter to Chairman Schoonmaker, of the Pennsylvania commission having charge of the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg, in which $1,000 in cash was inclosed. In the letter Thaw wrote that he offered "a thousand dollars with which to start a fund for the payment of the debts of a gallant Union officer, who had in his old age been bowed by financial misfortune." Col. Schoonmaker has not decided what action he will take.

Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars and all the costs of the action is the price the Marquis of Northampton has agreed to pay to settle the suit for breach of promise brought against him by the actress Miss Daisy Markham, whose real name is Miss Violet Moss. The costs will amount to considerable sum on account of the number of distinguished counsel engaged to plead for the opposing parties.

Samuel Stevens Sands was killed in an automobile accident near Westhampton, Long Island, last night. The machine he was driving overturned when a tire burst. Mr. Sands was the third member of his family to meet a violent death. G. Winthrop Sands, a brother, was killed in an automobile accident in France five years ago. His father, Samuel Stevens Sands, was killed by a fall while hunting about twenty years ago.

Four persons were killed and three others seriously injured last night when the automobile of David Sommers, millionaire president of the P. Sommers Furniture company, left the Olive street road near Creve Coeur Lake, St. Louis, and running into a ditch, turned turtle.

Benjamin L. McKinley, acting United States attorney at San Francisco, pending senatorial confirmation of President Wilson's nomination of Thomas E. Hayden to succeed John L. McNab, resigned, followed the action of his chief today by tendering his resignation. He gave as motive a desire to return to private practice. Mr. McKinley is a Republican and a cousin of the late President McKinley.

When Jeremiah Kramer, aged 72, who lives on a farm on the Windgap road, in Chartiers, township, Pa., entered his wagonshed yesterday morning he ran into a big swarm of bees about to swarm on a projecting beam. Instead of taking to the wings the bees enveloped him and piled onto his face and two-foot-long whiskers. Kramer yelled for help and fought the bees as best he could, but he was soon blinded and helpless from their stings. The onslaught of the bees rendered him unconscious and he was found by his son Joshua three hours later lying on the wagonshed floor with the myriads of bees on his head, arms, and neck, which were swollen to twice their natural size. Although medical aid was hurriedly summoned, Kramer died yesterday afternoon.

William Hartman, of Allentown, Pa., was drowned, and Thos. Quinn and two young women were seriously burned when an explosion occurred aboard the power boat Miller on Lake Erie near Toledo yesterday afternoon.

COOLER WEATHER ON GOVERNORS' DAY

Army of Blue and Gray
Peacefully Observe Anniversary.

A NEW LEASE ON LIFE.

Hospital Lists Diminishing, Feeble
Regaining Strength — Fifteen
Governors on Platform.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 3.—This is Governor's Day in the big camp, where the Blue and the Gray are peacefully observing the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg. Relieved by cooling breezes which followed the heavy thunderstorm of last night the veterans today had a new lease on life and the hospital lists diminished surprisingly.

The ill and feeble regained their strength and entered more heartily into the spirit of the day than they have at any time since the brown-tinted city opened. Many of the vets were driven out by yesterday's heat, but the remainder were enthusiastic over today's events and the prospect of seeing President Wilson tomorrow.

Fifteen governors will be on the platform at 2 o'clock this afternoon when John K. Tener, of Pennsylvania, calls the meeting to order. Governors Cox and Mann are scheduled as chief speakers.

Governor William Sulzer, of N. Y., was another executive scheduled to speak, and because of the fight he has been making against Tammany in his home State, there was especial interest in his presence here. After Pennsylvania New York has the most veterans here.

TWO COUPLES HELD.

Arrested Just as They Finish Supper at Richmond.

Richmond, July 3.—Just after they had finished supper and walked out on Broad street to take a little airing before returning to their lodging house, John M. Berger, twenty-four years old; Edward Randall, twenty years old, and Catherine Hartferl, and Helen Parker, both nineteen years old, were arrested last night by Detective Sergeants Bailey and Wiltshire, the men being suspected of violating the Mann act. With the two women they were also charged with being suspected of unlawfully living together as man and wife.

Sergeant Bailey took the men to headquarters for a little "sweating" while Sergeant Wiltshire went to the boarding house on East Marshall street with the girls. There Sergeant Wiltshire found private detective badges, two revolvers and two black jacks belonging to the men, a photograph of them taken together and of Berger in a sailor's uniform and a photograph of the girls. They had no trunks, having brought their effects in suitcases. They had quantities of clothes, but were without jewelry. When searched Berger had $5 and that was all the money among them.

The men are suspected of being wanted in New York or in Missouri. Since coming to Richmond they have been acting mysteriously, rarely returning to their rooms before early morning. The detectives strongly suspect them of being the two men who broke into and robbed the store of Hock and Reeves, 311 West Broad street, a few nights ago.

The girls were searched in the station by the police matron. One of the girls had a ring, which she was allowed to keep. Both took their predicament with the utmost nonchalance, and regaled each other with jokes before retiring.

ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY.

City Democratic Committee to Meet
Tonight at Hotel Rammel.

As has been announced, the City Democratic Committee will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at the Hotel Rammel for the purpose of making final arrangements for a candidate for the Virginia House of Delegates from this city and county.

J. Fred Birrell, member of the Common Council from the Third Ward; O. P. Angelo, a Southern Railway locomotive engineer, and Maj. E. W. R. Ewing, an attorney, of Ballston, Alexandria county, are the candidates.

While a new face will represent this city and county in the next House of Delegates, many who have heretofore appeared in that body from different sections of the State, will doubtless reappear.

Up to this time two dozen members of the legislature have been nominated by the Democrats in cities and counties. That is they are nominees of the party and the districts which they expect to represent have the habit of returning Democrats.

Of this number considerably more than half are men who have served in the House before, some of them in the last session and some in the sessions preceding. There are seventy-six yet to be named. As usual there will be Republicans in the House from the ninth congressional district which has for years been in that column.

AWOKE WITH SIXTY-TWO CENTS

Native of Stafford May Walk Half Way to Fredericksburg.

A young man, giving evidence of distress, giving his name as John Dye, of Stafford county, appeared in the station house this morning, and stated that he passed the night in a house in the northeastern section of the city, and when he awoke this morning and took an inventory he found that he had 62 cents. This amount would pay his fare half way to Fredericksburg, for which place he was to leave this morning. He alleged he had $5.62 when he fell asleep.

Chief Goods said he would examine into the matter.

LAMAR ON THE STAND.

Interesting Disclosures Before Senate
Lobby Investigating Committee.

Between the testimony of David Lamar, the mysterious impersonator of Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, and Representative Rioridan, of New York, and that of Lewis Cass Ledyard, the big New York attorney, whom Lamar sought to deceive, and who ultimately exposed both Lamar and Edward Lauterbach, the Senate Lobby Investigating Committee yesterday passed from one gasp to another until there was nothing left on the calendar of thrills for them.

The following is Lamar's confession: That he impersonated Representatives A. Mitchell Palmer and D. J. Rioridan, and M. F. McCombs, Charles D. Hilles, and prominent men in mysterious telephone conversations with kings of finance.

That a forgery of $82,000,000 was made on the books of the Union Pacific Railroad in 1901, and that this enabled E. H. Harriman and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., to lay the foundation of financial operations, which included their acquisition of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern.

That he was the author of the resolution for the appointment of the Stanley Steel Trust investigation committee.

That he handed this resolution to Henry B. Martin, secretary of the Anti-Trust League; that Martin gave it to Representative Stanley, and that the resolution was adopted by Congress practically without change.

That getting a resolution introduced in Congress is "like taking candy from a baby."

That his tremendous campaign of interviews and impersonations, was a fabrication pure and simple, a farce, a ridiculous thing, that would defeat itself by its own statements.

Paul D. Cravath made a formal denial of Lamar's charge of forgery in the Union Pacific accounts, and called Lamar "one of the most unconscionable liars of modern times."

IDENTITY SECRET NOT DIVULGED

Lamar Does Not Reveal
Name Before Senate
Lobby Committee.

LAUTERBACH ABSENT.

Senator Overman Would Welcome
Participation by House Committee in the Investigation.

Washington, July 3.—The Senate Lobby Committee will probably not require David Lamar known as the "Wolf of Wall Street" to reveal his true name.

Lamar has gone to Senator Overman, chairman of the committee, and asked him to be excused from telling his name on the ground that it would involve and perhaps gravely injure an innocent person.

Upon the circumstances, Lamar will not be required to shed light on his identity.

The committee convened at 10:30 this morning and put Louis Cass Ledyard on the stand again for the purpose of cross-examining him about certain phases of his testimony yesterday. Mr. Ledyard yesterday referred to certain interests back to Lauterbach. Senator Walsh asked him to whom he alluded.

"I referred to David Lamar and the machinations of David Lamar," said Mr. Ledyard.

It was expected Edward Lauterbach would be put on the stand today, but he did not receive Senator Overman's message in time to be present.

He will appear next Tuesday, to which date the committee will adjourn this afternoon.

Henry B. Martin of the Anti-Trust League, well known in Washington and a friend of Lamar, will be examined today.

Senator Overman said he personally would welcome participation by a House Committee in the Mulhall investigation.

Following the sensational testimony yesterday morning of David Lamar, the Senate Lobby Committee in the afternoon heard the detailed recital by Louis Cass Ledyard of his phone conversations with the mysterious man who impersonated Congressmen Rioridan and Palmer and who turned out to be Lamar.

At the close of his testimony, Ledyard told the committee that other persons in addition to himself and Judge Lovett had been mysteriously called up by phone. He mentioned John D. Archbold of Standard Oil, National Chairman Hilles, and Counsel Stroock, counsel for United Cigar Stores Company.

As to all these, at the bottom of all talks and conversations was the suggestion of the employment of Lauterbach.

"That was the panacea," said Mr. Ledyard, "the employment of Lauterbach."

FIGHT IN DINING ROOM.

Union Veteran Resents Insulting Remark About Lincoln.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 3.—A vulgar remark about the character of President Lincoln, which a veteran of the Federal forces camped here resented, started a fight in the dining room of the Hotel Gettysburg which resulted in seven men being stabbed. The two assailants escaped. The injured are now in the State emergency hospital. Their condition is not serious.

According to witnesses, who were seated in the dining room of the hotel, the veteran entered and was assigned to a table near the rear part of the large dining hall. Shortly afterwards two young men, believed to have been pickpockets or thieves, entered and sat on either side of the old soldier. A conversation started between the trio, during which intoxicants were liberally purchased by the young men for all.

Wanted by the committee of the Jr. O. U. A. M., picnic, 500 young men as partners for the young ladies at the Dyke, July 4th.

PUMP HOUSE BURNS.

The Southern Railway suffered a $2,000 loss last night when the pump house at Cameron Run burned to the ground by an explosion of gasoline. No one being injured, however.

Alexander Garrison, night man in charge of the pump house states the structure caught fire when the explosion occurred about 2 o'clock this morning the cause of which was unknown. It is supposed that there was a leak in the pipe which supplies gasoline to the engine used in pumping water, which caused the vapor to ignite when the watchman entered the building with a torch. The quick spread of the flames caused by the gasoline which flowed from the tank rapidly consumed the building, which was a total loss. The railroad company has made arrangements with the Alexandria Water Company to supply water to their trains at the Run until such time as the pump house shall have been rebuilt.

SAFE AND SANE DAY IN CAPITAL CITY

Features of Fourth of July.

CIVIC CELEBRATION.

Band Concerts, Electric Illuminations, Athletic Meets and Literary Exercises Will Be Attractions.

Washington, July 3.—The Capital of the nation tomorrow will observe Independence Day in safe-and-sane fashion. The true significance of the holiday is typified in the mammoth observance arranged by the citizens of Washington. Band concerts, electrical illuminations, athletic meets, literary exercises, with the historical parade and pageants, will combine to make Washington's celebration attractive in the full sense of the word.

For those of Washington's toilers who prefer to spend the holiday in other forms of enjoyment the parks and beaches will offer a welcome. Glen Echo, Chevy Chase Lake, Colonial Beach, Marshall Hall, and other spots will be the objective points of hundreds of excursions.

The official civic celebration opens at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning with exercises in Continental Memorial Hall. At the same hour municipal track and field meets are scheduled for the monument grounds and the Howard University campus.

The big feature of the afternoon will be a historical pageant, starting at 4:30 o'clock at the Mall and proceeding to the Monument. This procession will consist largely of costumed and uniformed sections, representing the development of American life since the Revolution. After the pageant has completed its march, a great pantomime spectacle, entitled "Uncle Sam's Birthday Party," will be presented on the Eclipse.

At 2:30 a parade with floats will proceed through the Avenue to the Monument; then through Seventeenth street, New York Avenue, to H. street, to starting place.

FIGHTING RESUMED.

Bulgarian Lose Heavily—Four Thousand Surrender.

Belgrade, Serbia, July 3.—Army headquarters reports that the Servians, after capturing Istip, pursued the enemy, capturing over 100 officers and 1,000 men.

Press dispatches say sanguinary fighting has occurred at Ovtchepolye, where the Bulgarian losses were enormous, and 4,000 Bulgarians surrendered. In this engagement 2,000 Servians were killed and wounded.

The Bulgarians delivered their heaviest blows at Guesvgheli, where they severed the Greco-Servian line, and at Istip. They still hold Guevgheli, but were driven from Istip toward Ovtchepolye, where the Servian army was massed.

The Servian supporting forces met the Bulgarians at Dermak and Petrishino, where a fierce fight ensued. The Bulgarians suffered heavily.

On the other side of Guevgheli the Greek armies are concentrated, and the Bulgarians risk being caught between two fires.

Unconfirmed dispatches report further heavy fighting, in which the Servians were compelled to abandon their fortified positions at the town of Istip and leave behind their wounded.

Fifty-four officers, including ten colonels, were among the killed.

London, July 3.—Any remaining hope of averting a Balkan war is rapidly disappearing. Bulgaria has sent warning notes to Serbia and Greece, demanding a cessation of all aggressive movements within 24 hours. These notes are regarded as tantamount to an ultimatum.

In line with the general improvements made possible by City Council of Alexandria, it seems that the fever is spreading and the disease becoming contagious. Look where you will and you will see old buildings being torn down or renovated and new ones being erected. Noticeable among the many are those at the old fair grounds. The rendezvous for the baseball fan and the home of the circus is now being covered by handsome residences and before long the bull frog who made his home in Hooff's Run will have to seek other quarters. There are pretty and as modern as any seen are those being erected by Mr. J. W. Devers contractor, on upper King street.

ALEXANDRIAN IS DROWNED.

Willard P. Graves, Jr., Loses His Life Near Tampico, Mexico

Intelligence has been received in this city that Willard P. Graves, Jr., son of W. P. Graves, residing on Fairfax street, near Franklin, was drowned June 20 from a steam launch in the river near Tampico, Mexico.

The deceased had a few days before accepted a position with an oil company in Tampico, which operates a plant about six miles from the city. The trip to the works was made daily by Mr. Graves and others in the steam launch. About eight o'clock on the night of June 20th, the boat was on its way back to Tampico when those aboard saw another launch entangled with a buoy a short distance away. The oil company's boat started to the rescue and upon reaching the boat which was in distress Mr. Graves arose and threw a line. While engaged in this act he lost his balance and fell into the river. The tide was running like a mill race, and the unfortunate man arose some distance from his boat, the occupants of which did everything in their power to rescue him. Their efforts, however, were futile, and he finally sank and the swift current soon swept him into the Gulf of Mexico.

The deceased was 34 years old and unmarried. He was the youngest son of W. P. Graves, who is now on a trip to the Dakotas. He was well-known and popular, and his many friends and acquaintances will regret to learn of his death.

FOURTH OF JULY HOLIDAY.

To-morrow, Independence Day, Will Be Observed By a General Shut Down

There will be a general suspension of business tomorrow in order that Alexandrians may participate in the pleasures incident to the Fourth of July. The number of public excursions will be increased, and boats and trains will transport many to and from the various resorts contiguous to this city.

A large percentage of our people will engage in private excursions and picnics and the woods will be full of young and old who will spend the day amid nature's scenery.

As is usual, numbers will remain at home and pass the day amid their own vines and fig trees where they will far from the bustle of crowds enjoy reasonable luxuries and escape the discomfort incident to returning home late at night.

The government and municipal offices will be closed and the post-office will observe Sunday hours.

As has been stated on several occasions, Mayor Fisher will endeavor to bring about more quiet and sane conditions in the celebration of Independence Day, and to this end he has publicly called attention to existing laws concerning the use of explosives. He has also announced his purpose to enforce the ordinances, as far as it lies in his power, and those who get themselves in trouble by discharging firearms or explosives of any kind cannot plead ignorance of the law or proper notice.

The authorities have been engaged during the past few years in the work of teaching people the importance of eliminating all dangerous features of holidays, and it is hoped that the community will vie with the mayor in bringing about this great desideratum.

Quality, endurance and vitality are essential requisites of merchandise if a sale is to continue as an annual event and sustain the interest of patrons. That our lace curtain sale possesses all these features and more is evidenced by the fact that each sale is more successful than the one previous.

The Curtains in this sale in addition to representing many numbers from our regular stock, also includes a special purchase at great concessions of Fine Imported Renaissance, Cluny, and several other styles of curtains marked far less than regular worth. Those from our large assortments are mostly odd lots, incomplete assortments, discount patterns, etc., but they are all high grade and perfect in quality.

Two to twelve pairs of a kind, in white and Arabian; silk and lengths. Renaissance Curtains, values up to $40 pair. Sale price, $3 to $26. Cluny Curtains, values up to $10. Sale price, $2 to $6. Irish Point Curtains, value up to $12 pair. Sale price, $4 to $6. Other styles of Lace Curtains at greatly reduced prices.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood. The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema, and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema. Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: 'I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. We have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years. We ourselves vouch for the D.D.D. Prescription that it will take away the itching the instant you apply it. If you are suffering from any form of skin trouble we would like to have you come to our store, for we have had the agency of this remedy for so many years that we can tell you all about D.D.D. Prescription and how it cures eczema. In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work. For that matter a trial bottle for 35c ought to be enough to absolutely prove the merits of the remedy. Drop into our store anyway and we will tell you all about this great remedy.'

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION.

PRESIDENT WILSON'S CRUISE.

How Does Not Suffer in Gale at Hampton Roads.

Newport News, Va., July 3.—President Woodrow Wilson spent nearly yesterday in Hampton Roads, off Old Point Comfort wharf, on the Mayflower. The Mayflower sailed quietly into Old Point at 7 o'clock yesterday morning. Although it was known that the President was where in Chesapeake Bay, his arrival was unheralded, the salute of 21 guns being omitted at President Wilson's request.

Mayflower sailed as far as the Virginia Capes yesterday afternoon, when the President had tried his luck fighting in the roads. Late yesterday afternoon a severe electric storm swept Hampton Roads, and a small craft to shelter in a cove. Several houses in Hampton were damaged by wind, and a rough sea was kicked up in the roads. The Mayflower, however did not suffer and steamed away at 4 o'clock on her return trip to Washington.

President Wilson yesterday reported by wireless to the White House that he is well and enjoying his three-day cruise on the yacht Mayflower. The message came from Hampton Roads, and said the yacht was just leaving there. The President expects to reach Washington tonight.

FIFTY MILLIONS INCREASE.

Reports Reaching Auditor Moore's office Show Satisfactory Results.

Richmond, Va., July 3.—Not less than fifty millions of dollars' increase in personal property values are indicated by reports coming to the office of the Auditor of Public Accounts.

This means an increase in the revenues of the State of not less than $175,000 for the current year.

It means an increase of not less than half a million in the revenues of 100 counties and 21 cities of the State.

Last year the total revenues of the State aggregated $661,410.49, and the addition of about $175,000 means that the State will receive a total of close up to $836,410.49 this year.

Auditor Moore, figuring on the reports in at this time, thinks there are indications of about 25 per cent. increase in personal property values. Last year the total returned was in round figures, $194,000,000. Add fifty millions and the state will have a total of something like $244,000,000 for taxation. A 50 per cent. valuation would give the state not less than $350,000,000 personal values.

Reports of the Commissioners of the Revenue for the year 1913 are beginning to come to the Auditor of Public Accounts, showing the results of the assessments for tangible and intangible property in the state.

Incidentally the work done by Auditor Moore, in his letters of instruction to officers, has borne fruit in many instances, though in some there has been a falling off from last year. These letters are insignificant, however and do not affect the rich and prosperous sections, as will be seen when the full report is ready for submission to the officers and to the General Assembly.

Sometime ago it will be recalled, Judge A. A. Campbell, who succeeded Judge Thornton L. Massie, of Radford, called the commissioners of the revenue to him in every court in his circuit and had a talk with them. He was then reported to have told the officers that they had taken oath to do their duty. He told them that their work hereafter would be scrutinized by the court, and when it became apparent that the officers had neglected slighted or failed in any way to discharge their sworn duty, he would have the books examined by the special grand jury to be called for that purpose.

The lecture to the commissioners had a salutary effect. The officers knew that Judge Campbell meant just exactly what he said, and they heeded his admonition. This year they have paid attention to business. There are increases in every county in Judge Campbell's circuit so far, and the books are not all in.

The President and Mrs. Wilson announced last night the engagement of their second daughter, Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson to Francis Bowes Sayre, of Lancaster, Pa. The wedding is expected to take place next November at the White House. Mr. Sayre is at present an attorney in the office of District Attorney Whitman, of New York.

BOY DROWNED.

Sad Accident at Ocean View on Tuesday Afternoon.

Norfolk, Va., July 3.—E. Robie Sturtevant, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Sturtevant, of 323 Fourth street, was drowned while bathing at Ocean View at 3:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The body was recovered and brought to the city.

The child, who was not quite 11 years old, went to Ocean View on a picnic with the Sunday school of Wright Memorial Church of which he was a member. The little fellow went in bathing with his uncle, James Moore, but did not come out when the later did, though his uncle cautioned him to come ashore. A little later the boy was missed and his body discovered floating a little distance from where he had been bathing.

"PEEPING TOM" IN RICHMOND.

Paul Beattie Has J. F. Hickman Arrested—Later is Fined $25.

Richmond, July 3.—Paul D. Beattie, elevator superintendent at the First National Bank building, testified yesterday in Justice Crutchfield's court to pursuing a "Peeping Tom," through sixteen stories of the building and finally catching him late yesterday.

The prisoner, who described himself as J. F. Hickman, 22 years old, a draftsman, was fined $25 and put under $100 peace bond for six months. The judge excoriated him for his actions.

Women stenographers on the sixteenth floor gave the alarm when the "peeper's" presence was discovered. Beattie took charge of directing the chase. Up one flight of stairs and down another raced the uniforms attendants, while office doors flew open and heads popped out, demanding to know what all the noise was about.

The chase ended when Beattie, turning the corner of a stairway at a lope, came unexpectedly on Hickman crouching in the angle. Beattie marched his captive off to the office of Luther L. Scherer, where he was questioned for half an hour before being turned over to the police.

"This man told several conflicting stories at first, but afterwards admitted he was doing wrong," Beattie testified. He added this was not the first time women in the building have been annoyed. "I've caught three men before but didn't have them arrested," he said.

Mail Carriers to Meet at Staunton.

Staunton will be filled with mail carriers when the tenth annual convention of the Virginia Rural Letter Carriers' Association meets in that place July 3d, 4th, and 5th. Congressman E. W. Saunders will deliver the principal address, taking as theme the "Panama Canal and Good Roads." These topics will be illustrated with lantern slides. For the first time since his recent illness, Postmaster Edgar Allan, Jr., of Richmond, will speak. While the meetings will occur in the county building the headquarters for the letter carriers will be the Augusta Hotel. The officers of the association are George F. Murray, Boone Hill, president; C. B. Conner, Secretary and treasurer.

SHE HAD HER GRIEF.

Actress Goes on With Play When Mother Dies.

Bristol, Va., July 3.—Miss Flossie Everett, a pretty blonde chorus girl with the Nella Brown Musical Company, now playing at the Columbia theater here, had Tuesday, according to members of the company, the most trying experience of her life. Shortly before the hour for beginning the performance of the evening, she received a wire message announcing the death of her mother in San Francisco. Although deeply shocked and grieved, she did not ask to be excused from service at the night performance, realizing that the company would be seriously crippled in its effort to present a new number without her assistance. "A Knight for a Day" was the offering, and Miss Everett, brushing away the tears of grief, appeared in her role and danced and sang as though nothing serious had happened, although she was almost consumed by grief. Her devotion to her mother, members of the company relate, was made manifest weekly upon receipt of her pay, when she would proceed to the postoffice and hurry a money order to her mother, thus dividing her earnings.

RETURN OF WAR RELIC.

Virginians Get Back Old Flag Captured by Michiganders.

Gettysburg, Pa., July 3.—The Virginia veterans were the happiest veterans in camp last night. They again have in their possession the flag of the Fifty-Eighth Regiment, which they lost to a Michigan regiment in a skirmish after the battle of Gettysburg. The flag was returned at the seminary on the battle ground yesterday afternoon by Colonel Mann, of the Michigan regiment, who remarked as he handed the colors to Governor Mann, of Virginia, that he returned the prize to a good man, because his name is the same as mine.

There was an exchange of speeches between the two gentlemen in which each glorified the occasion as marking the return of eternal peace. General Bennett Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, also made a speech. The Virginia Confederates, headed by their band, marched to the seminary to attend the return of the flag. They were joined on their march by veterans of other states, North and South.

At the seminary Governor Mann asked all the Virginia Confederates who were in line and who were wounded in the war to take a step forward. One-half of the Virginians stepped forward.

On the return march the Virginians were joined by a crowd of Pennsylvania veterans.

Bands were exchanged; popular airs were played. Cheers were frequent.

Divorce Decree.

Staunton, Va., July 3.—Judge Holt has entered a decree in the Circuit Court granting an absolute divorce to Annie Hamilton Crum from B. W. Crum, with $30 per month permanent alimony and the right to resume her maiden name if she should so desire.

Annie S. Hamilton of Highland County, and B. W. Crum, a well-known Staunton hay, grain and implement dealer, were married here on December 27, 1901. Several years ago marital differences arose and they separated, he claiming that she did not wish any children, and she making various allegations in her declaration which she established to the satisfaction of the court, which granted the divorce sought in her favor.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

WILL OBSERVE
THE FOURTH.

In accordance with custom, no paper will be issued from this office tomorrow. The employees of the Gazette have been given the privilege of participating in the spirit of the 4th of July almost since the Declaration of Independence was read in Philadelphia, in 1776. Generation has followed generation since the first editors and printers (ex-continental soldiers) gathered and listened to orations on Liberty and Independence Day and rejoiced that they had aided in breaking the yoke of George the Third and that the United States was recognized as an independent power.

The occasion is one which should appeal to all generations of Americans, although we live in an advanced age, when sharp competition is in evidence and when no day is regarded with sentiment or sanctity. But there is no reason why the great majority, at least, could not lay aside the cares and labors of life and celebrate the anniversary of the birth of what has become the greatest country upon the earth, of which we all should be proud.

GREAT AMERICAN HOLIDAY.

Tomorrow, July 4th, anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, in 1776, will be observed in all places throughout the broad expanse of the country. Patriotic features will extend from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the Star Spangled Banner will be saluted in Porto Rico, Cuba, the Philippine and Samoan islands, while there will be gatherings of Americans in London, capital city of the mother country, where patriotic speeches will be delivered and responses made by prominent Englishmen, some of the most illustrious of whom have said that the British lion is proud of her cubs. While in this day the pleasures of the occasion are frequently more in evidence than in the days of our grandfathers, the patriotic spirit is still prominent, and it takes but a few words or a pointed suggestion to arouse the spirit of '76 in the bosoms of all Americans native and to the manner-born.

While we are prone to hurrah for our country and to minimize the claims of others, the fact remains that most of those who have left their native shores and took notes in other nations have invariably expressed themselves as more content in the United States than in any other country and the enormous and never ceasing tide of immigration is proof conclusive that the foreigners find suitable conditions in America, as the great bulk stay here.

Those who have spent short seasons in old countries and have moved among statues and crouching lions, have rejoiced when they found themselves in their native land while passing under the shadow of the Goddess of Liberty in New York harbor.

After having gazed upon shafts, effigies, storied urns and tablets, to the great and illustrious of the mother country, the American, upon reaching New York, and finding himself in front of the heroic statue of Nathan Hale who is represented as defying the British King, his patriotism overflows and he feels that the American whose career was brought to such a sudden close was the peer of any who ever bore arms.

CITIES ARE PROSPEROUS.

The Gazette has several times called attention to the spirit of progress shown by Fredericksburg where the business men have a strong organization and are doing wonderful work in securing business enterprises for that city. The following editorial taken from the Fredericksburg Free Lance shows the result of that work during the first six months of this year.

Fredericksburg business men have reason to be proud of what they have accomplished for the material welfare of this city during the first six months of the current year and a continuation of the good work already done will make 1912 the most prosperous twelve months in our history. First and foremost there has been a tremendous awakening in the Business Men's Association and to this awakening and the constant efforts of the Association may be ascribed to some extent the activity we have witnessed. Thanks to this awakening we have organized a shoe manufacturing company, with every dollar of stock subscribed, a site has been purchased for the plant and it will shortly be in active operation; with home capital we have also organized a new hotel company, the site for the building has been bought and paid for and construction work will shortly begin. The hotel will be handsome in every detail and modern from the ground up and will supply a long felt want in this town, while the factory mentioned will give employment to a large number of our men. Not only this, but another company composed of Fredericksburg business men is building a large cannery on the river and boats to haul needed supplies from farms along the Rappahannock, and these same interests will shortly begin the construction of other manufacturing enterprises. A wood working plant has also been formed by our local business men. In addition to this economic development, made possible by the efforts of our business and professional men, the city's general appearance has greatly improved thanks to the energetic and efficient work of City Commissioner Royer and that was all the money among in our form of government has been simply demonstrated. Only in the last few days the city and private individuals acting together have given the necessary money with which to build an improved road all around the beautiful driveway overlooking the rapids of the river, known as the "Short Falls," and this driveway will be open by August 15th. Some of our business men made the Chattanooga, held here in May positive. It turned out to be wonderfully effective from a literary and educational standpoint and its good influence will be felt here. These are a few of the things which have marked the first six months of the year. Let the good work go on.

Our attention is also called to the fact that Charlottesville is progressing in a wonderful manner and the following article taken from the Charlottesville Progress gives an idea of the building operations now in progress in that city.

A time of prosperity is inevitably marked by great activity in building, in business combination, and in the launching of new ventures and enterprises. If these indices are trustworthy, Charlottesville is prosperous and that in no small degree.

Naturally Main street is the scene of most of the changes, but it is encouraging to note that other streets, notably Market, are beginning to get a share of the business that has grown too unwieldy for a single thoroughfare.

Beginning with the eastern portion of the first mentioned street, one notices first the passing of a landmark which antedates the oldest inhabitants, the Smith building, at Fifth and Main streets. This old structure, once a war time hostelry, resembled strongly the balconied houses of the Creole quarters of New Orleans. Part of this building has been torn down, and on its site Mr. J. A. Smith is erecting a substantial storehouse of brick, over which there will be offices. In a short time, the meat shop and barber shop just west of it will be removed to give place to another building.

It is reported that Mr. R. S. J. Sterling and W. D. Pence are to open a drug store at Second and Main in the building now occupied by T. J. Wills and Company. Mr. Pence has been with the Landon Pharmacy for some time. The rumor is so far unconfirmed, but such an addition to the city's business section is eagerly anticipated. It is not known where Mr. Wills has decided to go, but it is believed that he will continue in business.

The moving-picture field still offers inducements to idle capital. The proprietor of the Crystal Confectionary company has leased the Harlan building at the foot of the hill, and there is a possibility that he will convert it into an up-to-date picture show.

It is also said that the management of the Band Theatre, which is enjoying such a liberal patronage, has found the present accommodations insufficient and will build this summer a modern and beautiful moving picture house. Already plans and specifications have been secured, which call for a handsome papier-mache front and a roomy, artistic lobby. The pictures will be shown on the mirror screen, and every arrangement made for the comfort of the patrons.

We are informed that Mr. W. T. Walp, of the five-and-ten-cent store, has bought the storehouse now occupied by Lavenstein and will soon transfer his business to that place.

Mr. L. Shapero has rented the building at present used by Walp, and will probably make of it an additional show room.

Work is proceeding rapidly on the Matilda building at the foot of Vinegar Hill. When completed, it will make an agreeable addition to the number of modern business houses which are beginning to line the slope.

The Wyne Furniture Company has bought out the Bickers Auction Corporation located in the old Art building. This new firm will continue the very successful business in new and second hand furniture built up by its predecessors.

The Marathon Garage on Preston Avenue, which has been closed for some time, will be reopened next week by Messrs. Mooney and Lawrence. They are both expert mechanics and will handle all kinds of repair work. A drawing card will be furnished in the compressed air pump for filling tires, which will be installed for the free use of all motorists.

At 405-7, East Market street, Dr. O. E. Driscoll is putting up a five-story brick building. The lower floor will be made into two store rooms, with plate glass fronts, while the two upper stories will be composed of attractive flats.

Indeed, the building feature is what is most striking in Charlottesville. A conservative estimate places the amount being spent in new buildings in and around the city at $366,000. This is a very large sum and many will question its reliability, but it is probable that the present is the most attractive building season in the city's history.

The greatest single expenditure is that of the C. & A. Railway Company. They are paying $150,000 for their new power plant which when completed will compare well with any in the South.

The Educational and Engraving Building at the University will cost $75,000, and the various residences will run up into many thousands.

Probably the most desired and welcome of all the improvements is the remodeling of Union Station, the work on which will begin in several weeks. It was learned today that the contract has been let to the firm of Lea Brothers of Louisiana, Va. It calls for changes in and additions to the present building which will cost about $25,000, and will result in a serviceable, artistic railway station worthy of the city.

It is hardly fair to assume that the reason for the long lives of physicians is that they don't take their own medicine, but it is going to be advanced by a lot of misguided people who are still paying on a bill for medical treatment last winter.

CONDITION OF THE MARKET.

Vegetables And Fruits Continue to Come in Slowly.

On account of the national holiday, the city market expects to close at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. Buyers who expect to secure their food product should visit the market early. It is expected that there will be a good variety of green fresh vegetables. Excellent green corn is high, however, selling at from 30 to 35 cents per dozen. Home-grown tomatoes are now on sale. They are not very ripe, however, and bring 12 1-2 cents a pound. Green asparagus sells at two bunches for 25 cents. Red beets are now plentiful at 5 cents a bunch. New potatoes, fine large ones, are cheap at 10 cents a quarter peck. A fair supply of fruits is coming in. Watermelons bring 50 cents. Large fine peaches sell at 60 cents a large basket and 20 cents a quarter. Berries are rather plentiful. The warm weather, however, is retarding sales, as dealers dislike stocking up berries, which are very perishable in the exceedingly warm weather. Huckleberries are now on sale, bringing 18 cents a box. Fine oranges sell for 60 cents a dozen, while bananas bring 20 cents.

In the meat market there is very little change in prices, the best beef being rather plentiful and in great demand. Salted meats, and especially hams, are selling well at reasonable prices. Cooked ham, tongue, and sausage are now selling well, the hot weather bringing about a big demand for the ready to serve meats.

EXCITEMENT IN COURT.

Magistrate Gets Behind Safe Door
And Lawyer Leaps Out Window.

Tampa, Fla., July 3.—Just as Court Judge E. V. Whitaker adjourned court yesterday morning in the preliminary hearing of W. E. Maddox, a white man, who is accused of attacking Hazel Oliver, 13 years old, E. E. Green, of Sylvania, Ga., an uncle of the girl, drew a revolver and fired three shots at Maddox. All three shots went wild, and Green was disarmed by a court deputy before he could get the range on his intended victim. Green was placed in jail.

The first shot struck the ceiling. The second punctured a law book, the third splintered the top of Judge Whitaker's desk.

Maddox was seated between his counsel, former Supreme Court Justice C. B. Parkhill and Municipal Judge H. P. Bailey. At the first shot Judge Whitaker, dodged behind a safe door, Judge Parkhill leaped out a window, Judge Bailey and the prisoner dived beneath the magistrate's desk.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here Backed By Alexandria Testimony.

Don't take our word for it.
Don't depend on a stranger's statement.

Read Alexandria endorsement.
Read the statement of Alexandria citizens.

And decide for yourself.

Here is one case of it:

J. T. Langley, 513 Queen street Alexandria, Va., says: "During the past four years since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me of kidney complaint, there has been no sign of the trouble. I confirm the endorsement I have previously given this remedy. I had a bad back, and I think the trouble was caused by a strain. I could not stoop, and when I got up in the morning, I could hardly move. I noticed sediment in the kidney secretions and the many good reports I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills, lead me to get a box at Leadbeater & Co.'s drug store. They fixed me up in fine shape."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other. (15.)

NOTICE.

Alexandria, Va., July 1, 1913.
Owing to the death of John A. Marshall, the affairs of the firm of John A. Marshall & Bro., are being liquidated. It is imperative that all outstanding accounts due the firm are settled at once and the prompt assistance of our friends in this connection will be gratefully appreciated.

The business will be continued by Charles B. Marshall, surviving partner of John A. Marshall & Bro., and the same policies which have made this firm one of the largest shoe stores in Northern Virginia will be continued.

The entire stock of shoes will be sold regardless of cost for cash. This is an opportunity of a life time to get good shoes cheap.

"The wagon that stands up like the reputation of its makers"

When you buy a Studebaker wagon you buy a wagon that will last until you turn the farm over to your son and he turns it over to his son.

One of the first Studebaker wagons ever made saw constant service for thirty years, and we will gladly send you the names of farmers who have in their possession wagons that have been in constant use anywhere from 17 to 48 years—and there are thousands of them. We are building the same kind of wagons today.

A Studebaker wagon is an investment that will give you full return for your outlay. It is built on honor. Iron, steel, wood, paint and varnish used in its construction are tested and retested to make sure each is the best.

For work, business or pleasure—for town or country use—there is a Studebaker vehicle to fit your requirements.

Farm wagons, dump carts, trucks, buggies, surreys, runabouts, pony carriages, business vehicles of every description—with harness of the same high standard.
